After entering the Telegrams phone listings online at Oamaru.net.nz - it still surprises me the number of businesses that have no online profile - not even a contact number. At least now, the ones in the Telegram will. Most people now use their cell phones to find what they are looking for. We understand some are not internet savvy - so let us help. Call in and see us about getting at least one page online with your contact details and details of your services. (NO computer skills required).

Remember to "Shop Oamaru", regards The Telegram.
